

National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (2014-15)

Aspiring to be more?

National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership (NPQML) is a new national qualification that provides recognition of your leadership development and professional achievement as a middle leader. It is for:

- Heads of Year
- Curriculum Leaders
- Heads of Department
- Subject Leaders
- Key Stage Leaders
- Pastoral Leaders

It is designed to support you in developing skills, confidence and knowledge to drive successful team performance and improved classroom practice.

NPQML is assessed and awarded by the National College, with assessment focusing on tasks linked to school improvement activities undertaken in the workplace. St Joseph's College is delivering NPQML in partnership with Lawrence Sheriff Teaching School, under license by Leadership Live.

How is it delivered?

St Joseph's Teaching School Alliance offers a flexible combination of blended learning and support opportunities that includes face to face sessions, online learning and personal reflection, peer and facilitated learning, and activities carried out in workplace learning which include coaching from a member of your Senior Leadership Team. To achieve the National Professional Qualification for Middle Leadership you will need to successfully complete two essential and one elective module, facilitated at St Joseph's College.
